A Whole New Attitude Timothy J. Brill

What would you do if you only had only thirty days to live? What if that time was shortened to twenty-four hours-or even one hour? You can't control the amount of time you have left, but you can control how you spend that time. Timothy J. Brill, a pilot, philosopher, and adventure seeker, examines the nature of existence and humanity in a series of essays, considering how you can prevent fear from dominating your life, avoid being a victim by seeking answers, recognize the detrimental nature of feelings of entitlement, and stand up for what is right. We live in a world of increasing isolation, self-delusion and hatred, where any moral voice is labeled as a freak. We only live an illusion of freedom, and we need a new worldview that promotes the dignity of every person and all of creation. Join Tim as he explores how to create this new worldview with a spirit of charity, love, and, most importantly, a whole new attitude.
