The Center and the World Mr Mircea A Tamas

The world is in agony, the three pillars of a healthy society: the profound faith in God and aspiration for His Love and Wisdom; the submission to the spiritual authority; respect for parents and teachers, are all broken, and we witness a sombre concert, a devilish harmony between the receivers and the givers, because priests, parents and teachers are also “broken”, not all of them, not yet (which is why the world still exists), and then, we have the frauds, the false prophets who call themselves heroes and saviours, when in fact they are tools of the counter-initiatory forces. What our world lacks is the Traditional Spirit. René Guénon revealed the essence in a unique manner and warned that, without recovering this Traditional Spirit, the world will end, sooner or later.
