Armchair fiction presents the tenth entry in a new series of classic science fiction double novels. The first novel, “Beyond the Rings of Saturn” is an old-fashioned space adventure by Robert Moore Williams. Johnson Crane was sent to Saturn as an interplanetary troubleshooter, and he ran into far more trouble than he was expecting. However, when the trouble’s a beautiful woman, sometimes it’s just too hard to pull the trigger. Lots of good-guys-versus-bad-aliens thrills. The second novel, “A Man Obsessed” is a spine-tingling sci-fi horror tale by Alan E. Nourse. Jeffery Meyer had his own all-consuming obsession—a man from his past must die! After a five-year frenzied chase, Jeff had his victim cornered; he’d driven him into the last hideaway of the world’s most desperate men—the sealed vaults of the human-vivisectionists. And Jeff knew that to reach his final horrible objective, he must offer himself as a guinea pig for the secret experiments of the world’s most feared physicians!
