Echoes Through Lives Lulu's Story Faith Kinnear

This is the story of Lulu who learns from a young age that revenge is best served repeatedly. Lulu was a successful business woman in the 1980's when she married Conrad, a lawyer. Rather than the support she took for granted from her loving father and brother, jealousy drove her husband to use subtle mental and emotional cruelty to gradually destroy her confidence, her business and almost her life. This is the story of strong family ties, powerful friendships and the role of revenge, when betrayed.

Echoes Through Lives charts three women's reactions to betrayal in different decades and generations. From the life scar left when Betty retaliates in the 1960's, to Lulu, who's life and thriving business are threatened by her husband's emotional and mental cruelty in the 1980's, and how Izzy's ruthlessness to build her PR business rebounds when enemy, Dietrich, is determined to possess or destroy her in the present day. A chance meeting of the three women will either shatter the foundations of their lives, or will give them the strength to bind them together forever.
