I took the box. It was heavy in my hand. Lifting the lid revealed two round silver balls each about the size of a quarter. I lifted them from the silk interior and let them rest against my palm. They slid smoothly against each other and left a cold trail on my skin. Slightly magnetized, when I pulled them apart the balls sprang back together with a soft clang.

I looked up at Edward in confusion. "What do I do with these?"

"You wear them."

"Where, how?"

"You wear them inside you." A hint of a smile played across his lips.
