I, Jetebais Robert Martin Bishop

"I am the Rebellion." With these words, Jetebais laments his decision to leave Heaven. His greatest wish now is to expose Satan and save humanity from him and his legions of demons; but he must accomplish this before Satan learns of his intent. I, Jetebais is more than just a book about Good and Evil. This book explores the concept of how human arrogance can blind one to the outside intrusion of evil. It can even fool those who we look up to as the very representation of what is good: Leaders in the worlds of both politics and religion. Temptation, the Papacy, the power of faith and the eternal struggle of Good versus Evil collide in this suspense novel.
