This book is rich with facts and details, romance, humor and tragedy. From northern Michigan through North Africa to Sicily and Rome, from troop ships and C-rations to moonshine stills and slit trenches, these stories will tell you everything you wanted to know about how the troops were fed and moved and how the planes were kept flying. In these pages you'll encounter HRM King George, Generals Eisenhower and Patton, the US Table Tennis Champions, "Camelman" Montour, and Duckworth the squadron dog. You'll meet pilots, support staff, visiting celebrities, ladies of the night, and prisoners of war. You'll hear the stories behind the 52nd Squadron's impressive record of victories and the heartbreak of losses.
