The Discourse of Medicine: Dialectics of Medical Interviews (Language and Learning for Human Service Professions) Elliot G. Mishler

This is the first full-length monograph devoted to the study of the talk between physicians and patients in a medical interview. Methods are developed to describe, analyze and interpret the discourse. Additionally, a critique and review of previous research in this area is included. In the course of the work, a critique of more traditional methods, studies, and interpretations of medical interviews is presented.
