A new body, a new life...

Because of a facial disfigurement, Nurse Grace Joye has never felt beautiful, and when she's told a brain tumor will end her life within a matter of weeks, she's devastated. Grace's friend, psychiatrist Dr. Robert Andrews has been experimenting with spirit travel. He suggests that Grace transfers her spirit to the body of his newest patient—Mrs. Vanessa Knight, a gorgeous-looking woman who is soon to be released from life-support. Grace doesn't need much convincing to take this drastic step. She will live on and realize her two dreams: to be a mother, and be loved by a man. Only to hear her soon-to-be husband's whispered words just before the life-support is switched off: "Good-bye, darling. I'm glad I'll never have to see you again."

Lucas Knight has been contentedly preparing for Vanessa's death. Throughout their marriage, this volatile woman had become increasingly vicious towards him and their young son. Therefore, he's appalled and traumatized when, miraculously, she comes out of her coma. Strangely, this girl isn't anything like the witch he'd said goodbye to. He could love this gentle angel. But, can he trust her to stay this way?
