I Had a Little Dreidel Larry a. Johnson

In a sleepy Tennessee mountain community during the early 1900's, four lives are about to impact each other. Each so completely opposite of the others that they would not have met, unless something caused them to interact. A Dreidel is a four-sided top used as a children's game during the season of Hanukah. Each side has a different Hebrew letter with a different value attached. The four letters Nun, Hei, Gimmel, and Shin; form the acronym for: Nes Gadol Hayah Sham-'A Great Miracle Happened There'. Dreidel is the Yiddish name for the Hebrew word Zivion, which in English is a 'top'. As each of the four lives spin into each other, they are asked to add something, take all of something, or part of it. Or, they rest. But, they could not see the hidden hand that moves them. As the child's hand spins the zivion, so God spins us. This is the commonality of love from the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. When they slowed down to see the larger picture of the events that unfolded around them, they too, could see a great miracle happened there! Larry resides in rural Tennessee, with his wife of 26 years, Sher. Larry and Sher were part of a Messianic Jewish ministry in Tampa, Florida for over 15 years. Larry was ordained as Pastor after receiving a Masters degree for Pastoral Counseling. He also earned a Masters Degree in Theology. Larry has a heart for Israel, the People and the Land, as the Chosen People of God and the apple of His eye. He believes if we truly love the God of Israel, we would love what God loves; His children.
