Author note: It seems with each year it gets more difficult to find that time to read a book because of how hectic life gets, so on that thought, I decided to break up Duplicity into 6 quick episodes which can be read while waiting in line or at a doctor or dentist's office.

Author Warning: This episode ends with a cliffhanger.

The Duplicity series was previously published in 2012 as the single title book Shrouded in Mystery.

Finalist in First Coast Romance Writers Unpublished Beacon Contest,

He wakes up from a car accident with a dead man beside him and a duffle bag in the back seat with over one hundred thousand dollars in cash and a loaded gun. He has no memory of his past or how he got there. His only clues are a photo with the address of a shelter and a driver's license with the name of Clark Kent. They lead him to Boston, but once there, he's left with more questions and a sense of eminent danger. But nothing prepares him for the phenomena he finds within himself. Strangely, his hearing's more acute than any animal, his strength beyond anything human. He's left to wonder just who or what is he?
