When school had finally finished and we had both gotten into local colleges, I had honestly thought that things would get better. His dad didn't think I was good enough for his son and he made sure that I'd never get the happily ever after, which I had been counting on.

He couldn't put a stop to our bond though and, as we both realized that we could never be with each other, we let ourselves fall into each other, but then we are forced apart and I find myself wondering, whether my secret might be the only thing, which will bring him back to me.
