Book 2

Syf, which bubbled up from the depths of the mountain of Raheen to appear in the Circles of the Great Hall, counting down the hours to Raheen's final destruction. Syf, redrawing the border between Callodon and Pellarn, razing the mountain and raising a wall against the Old Kingdom. Syf, the symbol for change and transformation, used even to represent death, for surely no greater change is there for one living. Change is inevitable, Argovayne knows, but what the Shi'ell and his new friends don't know is how profound the change might be...
