Two sisters, one train crash, and one devilishly handsome stranger.

Katherine Jane Miller has it all: Good looks, a loving family, and the perfect boyfriend. But when a train crash plummets the town into absolute chaos, Kat's world is turned upside, with the arrival of newcomer Leon Blakefield.

As Leon gradually settles down, rumours start to arise as more begin to question, his involvement into the devastating crash. Despite his fiery temper and odd behaviour, Katherine firmly backs her friend - even if it means alienating herself from the life she once used to adore.

Now trapped, and totally unaware of the dark dangers that lie ahead, will Kat learn the error of her ways, or will her feelings grow even stronger, for this mystifying stranger.
