Education of Syrian Refugee Children: Managing the Crisis in Turkey, Lebanon, and Jordan Shelly Culbertson, Louay Constant

With four million Syrian refugees as of September 2015, there is urgent need to develop both short-term and long-term approaches to providing education for the children of this population. This report reviews Syrian refugee education for children in the three neighboring countries with the largest population of refugees—Turkey, Lebanon, and Jordan—and analyzes four areas: access, management, society, and quality.
