Clean Western Mail Order Bride Romance with a Happy Ending

1874, Candice lives in a small Montana town where there is only stagnation. The town she lives in was long ago abandoned when the gold ran out.

But after her mother's death, her father decided that it would be best to not move around any longer. Instead, he opened a tavern and enlisted his daughter's help.

After all, she's not suitable for a suitor, because no one is looking for a mail order bride with a little extra padding, are they? At least that is what Candice thinks.

However, when their quiet town is suddenly disrupted, everything that Candice thought was possible changes. Not only is she desired by a beautiful man, but an adventure awaits her. Can she handle it?

Will she be able to race against the clock to prove the man who might just be the one to love her is innocent of serious charges of murder?
