VURK KOLL: THE DARK ORC PRINCE: There are Orcs, and then there are the Krodon Mur Orcs with whom humans have had only a few skirmishes in recent years. Skirmishes that have left few human survivors. The survivor stories of the battles with the Krodon Mur Orcs have sown fear among all the races and even among the "Race of Man." The stories have given the Krodon Mur what they value most?their peaceful isolation. And none value it more among the Krodon Mur, than Prince Vurk Koll. Yet, fear, as all races know, is but a pale wisp of an adversary to greed. War comes, and, as always, it comes to those who do not seek it. Human raiders, led by a tyrannical Lord, even now brazenly encroach Krodon Mur lands. War comes and the world will be undone. It is said that the Krodon Mur Orcs are superior to the Race of Man in every meaningful way. It is said, that the Krodon Mur are wise enough to keep this truth a question unanswered; a myth. Yet there are Kings among the Race of Man who hold this truth, but know the vast treasures that lie within the lands of Krodon Mur. These Kings also know that, in this age, royalty does not die in war. That is an honor reserved only for the loyal. Long have the Krodon Orcs believed that the fate of the Race of Man would be to perish at its own hand. War now comes and that fate may rest in the hands of another race. Soon, the Race of Man may be no more. (Kirk McCune Vurk Koll)
