Curse of the Kennedys and Other Powerful Family Tragedies (History Book 2) Jennifer Davies

Curse of the Kennedys investigates famous bloodlines from the Bhuttos to the Brandos, and examines the tragedies that have befallen them as their family has evolved over the years. The Bhuttos, another powerful political dynasty, have suffered terrible moments that would not be out of place in a Hollywood movie. With assassinations, executions and mysterious deaths, it seems tragedy clings to their every political move. But while this indomitable family fought – and continue to fight – for what they believe in, one cannot help but wonder if their own brand of bad luck will hunt them down yet again.

Author Biography

Jennifer Davies is a freelance writer, editor and photographer from East Sussex. After completing her degree in Creative Writing, she worked as an editor for a publisher for six years, while writing gig reviews for a local magazine in her free time. Today, she works as a freelance writer, and explores a range of subjects from true crime to the world of celebrity. She loves to write about folklore and urban legends, but also enjoys reporting on the rich and famous, dead or alive.
