Knucklehead: The Adventures of an Eagle trying to fly with the Turkeys Bob Huffaker

Our youth in the USA are growing up in the most privileged society that the world has ever known. They presently have the best health and the most strength that they will ever possess in their lives. They are also seeking the most fun. So how do we warn them that the lifestyles and liberalities of our day will bring trouble? Can a story of a group like in Knucklehead, trying to live the lifestyle of their forefathers, do it? The author takes what's happening today and tries to project it out another ten years to show the kind of life our people will be facing. He then weaves in the humorous happenings of the past and the tragedies he sees coming to make Knucklehead a good read. What if we let these young people experience the precepts from the true and unchangeable word of God to give them a stronger faith? This should let them see that what the television, movies and their peers are telling them could bring disaster.
