After falling short in winning a WNBA championship, Symone decides to accept the invitation of an old colleague and return to her alma mater, Marian University, as a consultant for the womens basketball team. The Lady Panthers are rebuilding around a bright new star, Wendy Jacobs, and Symone's history as a freshman standout is needed to cultivate this new talent. Symone finds she must also guide Wendy in her personal life as Wendy's fear of being 'out' keeps her from pursuing her first love. Symone welcomes the opportunity to leave Georgia and get away from Regina who has turned her world upside down by unexpectedly relocating to the southern state with her wife and daughter. The love Symone once had is gone forever...or is it? When a loved one's life is in jeopardy, a family secret brings Symone and Regina closer than they could ever imagine.
