Our Difference Define Us Kathryn Lehan

Let's face it, we're all different.

Our Differences Define Us is three separate poems about being different:

I Only See, is about seeing things that make a person unique as a person and not the physical handicaps that make someone look or act differently.

We're All Weird, reassures us that everybody is weird – whether you have glasses, a big nose, wild hair, wear the wrong clothes, have a funny voice or any other thing that makes you feel different.

X-Ray Vision, explores what it would be like if we had x-ray vision. What would the world be like if we only saw what was on the inside, instead of the outside?

Our Differences Define Us Promise is a pledge to live from the inside out and to be different – which is perfectly normal!

Be Weird. Be Odd. Be Different.
