Matt is new in town, and he's excited to be vying for a membership at the Hammer, a club he's heard is the best in the business. He has to admit that his first encounter with a sub at the Hammer makes him believe it. Adam is like no one Matt has ever met, and he wants the professional sub to be his and his alone. Adam has some issues that might throw a monkey wrench into Matt's plan. While Adam thinks Matt is the most amazing top he's ever met, he also has to make a living. He's never wanted to have a private contract with anyone before, and he's not sure how to be a sub to Matt without making the man jealous because of his job. Matt thinks he has the answers to all of Adam's questions, but they have to work it all out between them gradually. Meanwhile, Adam still has to work, and some of his old clients may not like Adam having a relationship with another Dom. Can Matt and Adam find a balance between work and play?
