A Guardian Angel Phoenix Williams

Andy Winter is a hitman employed by a seedy corporation to tie up loose ends around the globe. He is haunted by the things he's had to do in his job and the murder of his childhood friend. The time that Andy lives in is marked by a conflict between the poor masses and the powerful elite. When Andy is recruited to kill journalist Haley Flynn, a pure and noble woman, his moral conflict triggers the foundation of a corporate nation and the beginning of a modern American civil war. The novel is told through four short stories that, together, tell the story of mankind's downfall.
