Grapes of Wrath: Abridged Edition E Ewart

Grapes of Wrath is the story of four soldiers on the Somme. It describes the Battle of the Somme from the soldiers' point of view, showing how different members of a tight-knit group of infantrymen - all members of a Battalion nicknamed "the Stonewalls" - cope with going "over the top" in a trench-to-trench attack.

The story was written in the immediate aftermath of the Battle of the Somme. The author, who was commissioned into the Royal Artillery at the outbreak of war, also served as a war correspondent, and wrote a number of action books about the First World War.
