Preaching Through the Psalms: Sermon Outlines and Helpful Homiletic Tips for all 150 Psalms!

Charles H Spurgeon

In the estimation of many preachers down through the years, Charles H. Spurgeon is the greatest preacher to ever stand behind a pulpit in the post-New Testament era. The massive volume of his sermon material is itself astounding and without compare, but when you consider the content of his messages he stands head and shoulders above the rest. Spurgeon was a preacher's preacher, and those of us who stand behind the sacred desk would do well to learn from him. Spurgeon would join the Apostle Paul in exhorting us to: "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." – 2 Timothy 4:2-4 (KJV) We have compiled this wonderful collection of sermon outlines and preaching tips on the Psalms to help you do exactly that! Contained in the following pages you will find the sermon material that Spurgeon himself found most useful to those in ministry. It was originally a part of Spurgeon's vast commentary on the Psalms, The Treasury of David. We have taken all of the sections specifically designed to help preachers and put it in this one extremely practical volume. If you are preaching on one Psalm, doing a series through the Psalms, or merely wanting to learn more about the Psalms, this will become your most valuable resource. There is more material here for preaching on the Psalms than any other book that I am aware of. Please free to use any of the following material in your preaching or teaching ministry. Use it "as is" or feel free to adapt it to your own style.
