The Adventurous Bride: "Lady Mary Farren is a sensible, practical country girl. But on her long-awaited Grand Tour, she's determined to find adventure. She's thrilled when the chance purchase of an unusual painting draws her into a mystery, and brings her to the attention of a handsome stranger! Lord Fitzgerald thought she was just another pampered British miss--until he was confronted by her keen intelligence. Knowing full well that and impoverished Irish peer was no match for a duke's daughter, John still couldn't tear himself away from the ravishing Lady Mary, or the painting, said to hold clues to a fortune in gold." Klondike Doctor: "Hadn't she defied upper-class conventions to become a doctor? And now a troubling secret would send her north in search of answers and adventure with the exasperating Colt Hunter. Everything he said made her blood boil, yet everything he was made her heart race! Mountie Sergeant Colt Hunter had sworn to protect, and he'd never met a woman more in need of protection than the headstrong doctor. Why couldn't she understand that the untamed wilderness of the Yukon was no fit place of a genteel lady? Together they traveled a dangerous road where duty warred with passion, and even Colt couldn't foresee which would win out." The Rake's Proposal: "A scandalous secret was part of the dowry Katherine Sutcliff would bring to her bridal bed. And any prospective suitors on the Marriage Mart would have to live with it-- or live without her! But her pressing need for a suitable match was diverted by her most unsuitable attraction to the disreputable Lord Benjamin Sinclair. A rakish life had been Benjamin's choice, but now the adventurous gentleman was tempted to stay closer to home. How wise could he keep a watchful eye in Kate Sutcliff, when the gangly girl he'd teased in childhood had grown into a most unconventional beauty?" [Excerpts from back covers' notes.]
