She's the practical one, who always does the right thing, even if that keeps her indoors.

He follows his own path, wherever nature leads him.

When Alissa moves to a cabin in the middle of nowhere, she thinks she's about to start her life over. Peace and quiet with a sweet job at a coffee shop.

She even has a roommate named Brandon. He's a little bit strange. He goes out all night and doesn't return until dawn. He eats large amounts of fish. But he's rugged and handsome in that nature man kind of way.

But something is wrong with her roommate. He's distant. He's troubled. He's naked or half naked all the time. And there's someone or something new in his life that he's not telling her about.

After a suspenseful all-nighter, Brandon and Alisa share more than just conversation. They share a night together, but can they share more than that? Is Alissa his fated mate, or is she bearly a roommate?

This 21000 word novella is a stand alone story with a HEA. It is part of the Bearly Series.
