Roberta comes and goes in his moped by Monte Calvese. She is a girl of sixteen, Italian, that is awakening the world ... or rather, half-waking world, because the vicinity of the town begins to feel a damn spell precisely matched their flesh, from the beautiful figure of a woman girl taking shape. Magic, mysticism and science are mixed especially in this funny and curious work where love seems all the impossible: a priest, a mobster and a scientist in love with the same woman, Roberta, God's masterpiece.
