Black Magic: Interracial Billionaire Romance Aaliyah Jackson

Billionaire Alan Griswald stands out like a sore thumb in the urban Voodoo congregation, and it's not just because he's a rich white man in a suit.

Priestess Rosalie is more than happy to talk to the handsome stranger about everything he wants to get off his chest - his strict Christian upbringing, his spiritual conflict, and his inability to commit to a relationship - and they decide to take a peek into each others lives. After all, what could go wrong if they have a few drinks at the local bar?

Rosalie tries to stop herself from getting involved with someone new to the congregation, but they both abandon their own limits as they give in to their feelings.

There's only a few problems...

Mr. Griswald's strict Christian family, who would faint at the idea of him being with a woman like Rosalie.

Rosalie's sister, who's jealous actions drive a wedge between them.

The fact that they come from completely different faiths.

And a positive pregnancy test.

Mr. Griswald isn't too happy about the sudden and unexpected situation. However he has no intention of abandoning his new child, so he hopes to 'bring her to the light.' Will they get what they both desire and learn to live together? Or will Alan's rich and powerful family shatter their happiness?

Black Magic is a standalone BWWM Billionaire Romance Novel. This book has a satisfying ending and NO CLIFFHANGERS.
