The Valley rugby team and coach Israel Folau are off to the Northern Territory. But is the team ready to tackle a new environment? Daniel and Sione can't believe they're in the Top End. On arrival, the boys realise that everything is different-the weather, the culture, the people-and no one seems to play rugby! The team is faced with the temptation to thrash their inexperienced opponents but soon find that winning that way isn't as fun. Izzy urges the boys to give the newcomers a chance. Will Daniel and Sione be able to surrender the scoreboard for the love of the game?
