Real Life Moments: A Dad's Devotional J. Mark Fox

One of the most challenging things I have faced as the husband of one wife and the father of five boys and two girls is the same thing you have faced, no matter how many children you have. It is a constant challenge to be the husband and the father we are called by God to be and to give our wife and children what they need us to give. This book is designed to be read by the dad who is busy making a living at a job but does not want to overlook making a life at home. My hope is that each story will make you laugh or think or even cry, and that God will use this book to encourage you in your own journey as a godly man. There are fifty-two life lessons in this book, one for each week of the year. They are not dated, so you can start anytime in the year and use it for the next 52 weeks. Or, you can read the lessons in 52 days if you like. Or, 52 hours. Hey, you could probably read through the whole book in about 52 minutes, but I don't think you would be able to do all the "action" items that fast. Nor would you want to! At the end of each lesson, there is a prayer you can read as an encouragement to your own heart's cry to the Lord. There is also an action item that exhorts you to do something in response to what you just read. Hey, I'm a guy, too. I know the tendency we guys have to believe that just thinking about something, or just hearing a good idea and agreeing with it is equivalent to actually DOING it! Sorry. I wish it were so, but that's just not going to fly. Go ahead and check your bags with Reality Airlines and follow through on those good intentions you have entertained for years. This book, I hope, will help you to do that. If nothing else, you will have a collection of wild and funny and sobering stories to share with your family around the supper table. Or, if you are a pastor or a teacher, these pages can help you illustrate biblical truths in your next sermon or Sunday School lesson. No matter how you use this book, my prayer is that it will be a blessing to you. And I would love to hear from you.
