How Frieda the Snail Finds Her True Friend Claudia Lorenz

Follow Frieda the snail on a colorful journey to find her true friend. Along the way, she encounters a fallen ant, a struggling fly, and a stuck beetle- but whom she chooses as her truest friend may surprise young readers. Illustrated by an Australian artist and written by an Austrian born Kindergarten teacher who believes in teaching language through stories and songs, this short story of self-acceptance, empathy, and friendship crosses international boundaries, while exposing young readers to multiple languages. (The book is dual language English and German)
