This is a book to be enjoyed and treasured for that special time spent between parent and child. It is a heart warming story with a sweet ending for children ages preschool through 3rd grade (Ages 4-8), to be read at bedtime or any time.

- On each page of this picture book, there are sight words labeling animals, people, and things, as well as underlined in the narrative.
- Your child will learn sight words needed for their reading and writing foundation as they read a fun and interactive story.
- The sight words in this book are "Dolch sight words", the same ones used in many famous and classic children's stories.
- The book on its own merits is filled with memorable characters and beautiful illustrations.

About the Author

- Jimmy Fields is a teacher in Brooklyn, NY who lives with his wife and 16 year old son. He has seen that learning in a fun environment is very effective, not only in theory but in practice.
