Upon being abruptly uprooted from her idyllic childhood home, Margaret is thrust into the industrial world of Milton where conflict, inequity, and bitterness seem to beset her at every turn. How can she ever find peace and happiness in such a place?

Mr. Thornton longs for the chance to show this newcomer from the South that beneath his strict adherence to business principles he possesses a heart. Captivated from the first by her beauty, strength, and independent spirit, the lonely Master finds himself increasingly tantalized by her presence and stirred by her words.

When a riot breaks out at Marlborough Mills, events take a decidedly different turn from the novel, spinning a story of attraction and developing love in a whole new direction....

From the author of "A Heart for Milton" comes another tale of the burgeoning love and longing between John Thornton and Margaret Hale, those exquisitely drawn characters from Elizabeth Gaskell's masterpiece "North and South."

Wilma Richards:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this In Consequence: A Retelling of North and South can make you really feel more interested to read.
