The Funeral (Laid To Rest Book 1) Amelia Rohm

"There were twelve hours to go. Twelve hours until I had to bury our future under six feet of dirt."

Anna Barnes-McKenna is lost in grief and anger after the sudden death of her husband and she doesn't know what to do with herself. At least, not until a man she hasn't seen in years shows up to awaken her passions, and make her question everything...

Will she be able to live with herself if she gives in to temptation? And could her family ever forgive her if they discovered what, or whom, she's done?
