What Goes Around Helen Donovan

Adopted as an infant, Phoebe has had a burning desire for as long as she can remember to know about her birth family. Now twenty-two and having recently graduated from college, she finally follows her heart and hires a private investigator to search for her roots. She is initially elated when the search reveals she has two living blood relatives, a grandmother and twin sister. Thrilled with the discovery, Phoebe envisions a joyous reunion and happy, loving future. Things take a turn for the sinister, however, when meetings with the two women reveal them both to have complicated, even criminal pasts—pasts that have not only followed them into the present, but which now threaten to drag Phoebe into a world of mind games, manipulation...even murder.
