Dance on my Grave (Chinese Edition) Eden Chambers

I met Barry in the summer when I was sixteen. That is the beginning of both our happiness and sorrow. I was crazy about slow and quiet things such as words, death, and a steady and loyal friendship. Barry liked fast things, such as riding a bike quickly and driving a speedboat. It seemed that everything was under his control, including our encounter and breaking up. I want to record love and sorrow that I was immersed into not for recalling, but for freezing them up and fleeing away from our past.
