A brand new volume of the His to Keep series for fans of alpha male billionaires.

Erika McKinnon is a rookie FBI agent in the financial crimes division. It's her job to bring down white collar criminals who are taking advantage of their employees and the government. It's because of her skill and passion that she's been assigned to dig into the life of a man who may be up to no good.

For weeks she's been posing as billionaire Roman Saunders's new assistant. Her assignment is to get close to him, learn his secrets, and find out just what he's hiding from the government.

But Erika has crossed too many lines with Roman. Once would be forgivable, but she keeps going back for more of the dominating billionaire and she isn't sure she can stop.

Things are only bound to get worse when Roman starts to suspect that Erika isn't exactly who she says she is.
