John G. Fuller could not have written his bestselling book "The Ghost of Flight 401" without the help of an airline insider. And that airline insider turned out to be flight attendant, Elizabeth Fuller. Together they uncovered dozens of pilots and flight attendants who actually had a first-hand encounter with the dead flight engineer of Eastern Airlines Flight 401. But the story goes much deeper as Elizabeth suddenly develops psychic powers and eventually has the breakthrough communication with the deceased flight engineer that led to what is today called the most documented ghost story of all time.
