A Grand Prix Romance by Devon Rhodes and T.A. Chase

Book Seven in the International Men of Sports series

Two men who share a passion for speed find out what can happen if they slow down enough for a Grand romance.

Paolo's more than just a football player—he plays at life. But underneath the party boy image, he's well aware that his career is stagnating and a big move might be needed. Before anything like that can be decided, though, he's going to enjoy his annual trip to Monte Carlo for the Grand Prix.

The only thing Johann loves more than his Formula One racing is gambling in the glittering atmosphere of Monaco. This year, he finds that high stakes applies to more than just cards—his heart is going all in and if he bets it all and loses, it could cost him everything.

She lives in Oregon with her family, who are (mostly) understanding of all the time she spends on her laptop, aka the black hole.

T.A. Chase
