Plug In to Your Child, Ages 4-9: Connect to Your Child's Heart; Motivate Great Behavior; Teach Clear Expectations, Boundaries, and Limits. Mendi Everett

This easy to read guide is for the parent who knows there is more to parenting than what they are currently experiencing. It is possible for parents to really enjoy their kids and go beyond just being a rule enforcer, taxi, and pocketbook, to a mutually fulfilling relationship. Surprisingly minor adjustments usually need to be made.

Plug In to Your Child addresses these needed adjustments, yet takes into account your personal values, style, and individual child. It gives hope that you are not alone in your desire for more from your relationship with your child, and tools to connect with your child and motivate them to great behavior and obedience.

The author shares from personal experience how frustration and anger can be reduced and turned into peace in the home in a relatively short time. The author also shares some personal insights that can help understand the difference between teaching your child and correcting your child and when to apply each.
