This listing is for Survival Signs Activity Cards - Indoor (80 Cards) Qty : 1 Each. Reading Level: Nonreaders Interest Level: 2 - 12 Survival Signs Activity Cards offer students of varying ages and abilities, especially visual learners and nonreaders, four ways to effectively learn important signage found in both indoor and outdoor settings. PCI's Janie Haugen-McLane developed the Survival Signs Activity Cards to complement the Survival Signs Program. The activity cards are designed to teach students how to recognize the international symbols and key words or phrases on 80 common signs located in the community. Each survival sign is covered on the front and back of two activity cards. The 5- by 8-inch cards are categorized into indoor and outdoor signs levels one and two. The program teaches individuals: to recognize survival signs when both international symbols and words are shown to learn the definitions of the survival signs to recognize the survival signs when only the international symbols are shown to look for key words or phrases when survival signs are shown without the international symbols as a helper Teacher's Guide Includes instructions, two reproducible Assessment Tools (one for indoor and one for outdoor signs), and suggestions for independent study, small groups, and classroom settings. There is also a brief guide that provides sorting instructions for setting up the file box for the cards. Special Features The card set includes a sturdy storage box and tabbed dividers.
