What to Expect When You're Expecting a Puppy Robert Harris

You're thinking about getting a puppy. Great! Puppies can be lots of fun to have around. They're cute and cuddly and cute. But they are a big responsibility, and knowing what to expect is the key to coexisting happily with your little canine friend.

In this book, you'll learn all about what to expect when you bring your new puppy home – the good things and the not so good. But it's all good, so ignore that last sentence. Raising a puppy is a great experience. And it can be even better if you know what will happen when a puppy joins your family.

This book will give you a realistic view of the world you soon will be inhabiting. Some of it will drive you nuts; but most of it will bring a smile to your face and warm your heart. It's all part of the imperfect process of raising a puppy.

If you're worried, it's probably because you're uncertain about what lies ahead. You just need more information. So learn what to expect. Then you'll be better able to take it all in stride and become a great puppy parent!
