Amazing Animal Hide and Seek John Rowe

Cat and Bat, Hare and Bear, Frog and Hog, Duck and Goose, and Mouse and Moose are having fun playing hide and seek! Kids can play along with them by closing their eyes, counting to ten, and turning each page to the book's next funny illustration. First, kids must find the Cat who is hiding in a field. His colors blend in with the many other details in this vividly colored illustration, so toddlers will have to look very carefully. Once they've found Cat, they can turn to the next page and seek out one more animal friend in hiding. Finally, at the story's end, all the animals have been found and have returned home to rest. All except one-- the little Mouse! But kids will find him in the very last picture when they lift the flap that opens the door on the old grandfather clock. Delightfully clever color illustrations fill every page.
