Annabelle had a predictable life. She had a kind husband, a steady income, and a big house on a working ranch. It was a life she chose for herself and told herself she enjoyed, but it wasn't the life she wanted when she was younger. She's made compromises, and the ghosts of those compromises follow her even as she tries to forget them.

When a man from her memories returns home from war, she has a tough choice to make, that only gets more difficult when fate tips her hand.

Will she repeat the mistakes of her past, or will she make a choice she's truly happy with?
