Canada Day 2016 Preview: The Promise of Canada Charlotte Gray

Celebrate Canada Day with this Preface to Charlotte Gray's The Promise of Canada: 150 Years—People and Ideas That Have Shaped Our Country.

“I knew it was time to engage Canadians in our past in a new way. I’ve always been fascinated by the gap between the modesty of my fellow citizens and the extraordinary success of this country. Every issue, every period, every region I explore, I find intriguing characters, painful tensions and surprising triumphs. Yet most of us know so little about the layers of history and ideas that make this country work.

We have a unique and lively history, but too often it is told from only one perspective. Sometimes that perspective is political, other times it is regional, but it rarely captures the complexity of our sprawling land and diverse people. A big birthday, like Canada’s 150th, is the perfect time to bring both national heroes and unexpected guests to the table. I want their personal dramas and brilliant visions to bring a sparkle to the sesquicentennial.”

—Charlotte Gray on The Promise of Canada, available October 2016 from Simon & Schuster Canada
