Just when Carmen Rose thinks she's finally ready to let go of loving Nicholas Payne- a man whom she felt never truly loved her, she gets a phone call that threatens to horribly alter her life and completely shatter her heart. Now, a complete emotional wreck, she rushes to confess a love she never wanted to take part of in the first place. But when things suddenly become much more difficult than they first appear, Carmen runs at the first chance she gets and doesn't stop until she's forced to confront her feelings head on. And in an instant, Carmen must make the decision to fight for love or walk off into the sunset all alone...

After having the unfortunate experience of understanding just how precious life can be, twice in the same day, Nicholas is ready to lay all his cards on the table and be completely honest with himself about what he wants. But when he bares his heart and is met with hesitation, Nicholas begins to wonder if he's made one of the biggest mistakes of his life. Fed up, Nicholas is ready to just walk away from it all but is he really ready to say goodbye to the only woman he's ever really loved?!
