The Noose of Laurels: Robert E. Peary and the Race to the North Pole Wally Herbert

BRO-DART COVER. FIRST U.S. EDITION(Dated title page). 1989 Atheneum hardcover, Wally Herbert (A world of men: Exploration in Antarctica). Who was the first man to stand on top of the world? Most polar historians grant that honor to Robert E. Peary, who, after a long and brilliant polar career, allegedly reached the North Pole on April 6, 1909. Long debated, but never proven or disproven, Peary's ultimate achievement seemed destined to remain forever an enigma unenlightened by first-hand information.
