The House of Penheligon Quartet M.J. Carey

A Dynasty of Domination: Three sisters and a successful business underpin a house of secrets, where dominas play games of dominance and submission with their servants and slave maids. Nestled in Cornwall, near the southern-most tip of England, the House of Penheligon; a former, minor stately home, restored to its original, owning family, the two sisters Penheligon; Danielle and Alicia, practise female domination in a secret, exclusively female society, where Danielle's rules ensure secrecy and exclude all males. Summoned from Australia, invited to take her place in the running of the house, younger sister, Rachel is determined to bring male slaves into the household. Her efforts bring her into conflict with her sisters. This edition collects all four novels into one volume; as the story was originally intended to be, completing the arc of Rachel's arrival at the House of Penheligon and her subsequent adventures. Suitable for readers over 18 only.
