He held her face in his strong hands...

She was going to school, working part time as a stockbroker. Things were looking up for her, her life finally coming together. A woman of real power and control. Then she met James Read.

A billionaire, he'd made his entire fortune at a young age, and now, it seemed, both of them were looking for love. A few mutual acquaintances, a blind date, and things can start to blossom.

But when they go back to her apartment, it isn't love. Lust reigns supreme, and she'll do anything James wants, as long as she can please him.
